

Cynthia Johnson
Director, Consumer Affairs
Georgia Public Service Commission

Ms. Johnson began her career at the Georgia Public Service Commission in February 2002 after spending 26 years in the private sector. As Director of Consumer Affairs, she oversees a staff of 13 in managing the intake, investigation and resolution of consumer complaints and inquiries, the enforcement of state laws and Commission rules governing utilities, and consumer education.